

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Produce Episodic Documentaries on the Negative Impact of Forced Migration and Trafficking of Women and Girls in Nigeria.

Introduction

The CLEEN Foundation (formerly known as Centre for Law Enforcement Education) is a non-governmental organization established in January 1998 with the mission of promoting public safety, security, and accessible justice through the strategies of empirical research, legislative advocacy, demonstration programs and publications, in partnership with government and civil society.

Background:

The CLEEN Foundation is implementing a project focused on: “Preventing forced migration and trafficking of women and girls in Nigeria: Build resilience, promote sustainable development.” The primary objective is to enable a gender-sensitive policy environment that addresses forced migration and trafficking and increase gender-sensitive information and awareness-raising in source migration trafficking sites. The project also seeks to support and strengthen the gender-responsiveness of interventions by the National Agency for the Prohibition of Trafficking in Persons (NAPTIP) and other relevant government agencies. The intervention has undertaken a gender audit exercise on protection services within existing trafficking shelters and safe homes and other front-line services and providers. The outcome of the Gender Audit has led to development of reports on the findings of the gender audit conducted in Edo and Lagos state which has to be produced and disseminated to the public.

Overview

CLEEN Foundation is seeking experts who will produce a documentary on the prevalent issues surrounding forced migration and trafficking of women and girls in Nigeria. The documentary will look at key issues emerging from Edo and Lagos states which are predominantly faced with this vice. The main objective of the documentary is to create awareness about forced migration and trafficking of women and girls in Nigeria while telling a story that can conscientize and sensitize the populace about the dangers of human trafficking and at the same time expose underlying factors that contribute to or aid the trafficking of women and girls in Nigeria.

The experts will use pictures, narration, graphics, sound and interviews to tell a compelling story.
